This mid-century magic home has been lovingly kept by the same family for over 22 years and combines elegant detail with family function occupying a private 1315m2 allotment with an expansive private brick wall, ornate gates with a 29 metre street frontage. This treasured home features a warm and welcoming entry, an engaging living and dining room with a sun-filled kitchen, main bedroom with ensuite, a further 3 bedroom with robes. A pristine bathroom with separate toilet and laundry. The property has been enhanced with very large extension overlooking the outdoor area creating a captivation and flexible family domain. This lovely light filled family room is heated by a Coonara wood heater and cooled by a split system. A great hallmark feature of the property are the original Bendigo Pottery tiles throughout the home including a feature wall of the living ro ...
