If your dream is to own a rural property with loads of history and the romance and character of buildings from yesteryear then this property may just be for you! Originally a vineyard / orchard in the late 19th Century, the property is an original holding - totally unique and only 15 km from Bendigo Central. The double brick villa is set on high ground that looks out over river gums. This property is currently set up as a short stay accommodation business (registered) and is offered for sale fully furnished with some antique furniture pieces (original to the house) and quality fittings and fixtures. The villa is fully renovated and modernized but decor is in keeping with its historical period. Upon entry, you will be immersed in the rustic charm of a bygone era. The central hallway features ruby glass door inserts framed by lofty 14 feet timber ceilings and ...
