This handsome red brick beauty boasts a blue-chip position in the stellar suburb of Flora Hill. That means it's less than 2km from central Bendigo, walking distance to La Trobe University and Bendigo South East College while having excellent access to Kennington Village. The home consists of three bedrooms, two bedrooms have built-in-robies and a spacious lounge flowing into the open dining/kitchen. The kitchen contains plenty of storage with wall oven and bench top cooking. There's a cute, two-piece bathroom with room for improvement plus a laundry and separate loo. Outside, a concrete drive leads to the triple bay carport with colourbond workshop with concrete floor and power. Set on a great sized family allotment with established gardens and a fully enclosed yard. With great street appeal, you'll want to step inside this wonderful city-side address to che ...
